Important information for minors (under the age of 18)

Both parents must sign the visa application form and the following additional documents are needed:

- a) The minor's birth certificate (containing father's and mother's name). If the document is not in German, English, French or Italian, a translation by an official translator in one of those languages is required.
  - b) Copies of passports from both parents
  - c) Consent letter if the minor travels alone or with one parent only, certified by a Canadian authority
  - d) The relevant court documents if only one parent has guardianship
  - e) Death certificate if one of the parents passed away

General requirements (for all applications)
(all documents must be in English, German, French or Italian)

1. Three forms "Application for a long stay visa (visa D)" completed, dated and signed by the applicant.
2. Two legible photocopies of your passport (photo, data and signature pages only).
3. Two loose European size passport color photos according to requirements
4. If you are not a Canadian citizen, two photocopies of your proof of residency in Canada (PR card, work or study permit).
5. Visa fee: Please refer to our website for the current fee and methods of payment.

Children and spouses of Swiss and EU/EFTA nationals are exempt from visa fees only if they include a copy of the Swiss or EU passport of parent or spouse and proof of family relation (marriage/birth certificate).

IMPORTANT: Check the next page for additional requirements and documents to provide depending on the visa type.

PLEASE NOTE :

- National visas are reviewed by immigration officials in Switzerland. This means that all mentioned supporting documents are strongly suggested. Missing documents may delay the visa process.
- If you cannot provide a document, mention the reasons for it (explanation in duplicate).
- The immigration office in Switzerland may contact you if further documentation is needed. The Consulate does not have the authority to comment on these specific requirements or exempt you from providing them.
- The Consulate may request a personal interview or additional documents at any time during the visa process.
- The procedure can take up to 15 weeks. There is no fast track procedure.
- Once you submitted the application, the Consulate does not have access to your file and, hence, does not know the status of your application.
- Once your visa has been approved, you will be informed by the immigration office and a file number will be given to you (in German: ZEMIS, in French: SYMIC, in Italian: SIMIC). Please contact the appropriate Consulate by email for further instructions when you have received the file number or a confirmation that your visa has been approved.

Specific additional requirements according to visa type:
