

Curriculum Vitae Mirko Giulietti

Mirko Giulietti was born in 1964 in Lugano, Ticino. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Economic and Social Sciences from the University of Geneva; a Master's degree in Urban and Land Use Planning from ETH Zurich, as well as a LL.M. (Diplôme d'Etudes Supérieures, DES) in International Human Rights Law from the University of Louvain-la-Neuve (Belgium). After several missions for the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) in Colombia, Afghanistan and Rwanda, and for the Organization for the Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) in Bosnia-Herzegovina (in the framework of a detachment from the Pool of experts from the Swiss Federal Department of Foreign Affairs), Mirko Giulietti joined the Swiss diplomatic service in 1999. He did his practice in Bern and at the Permanent Mission of Switzerland to the United Nations in New York. In 2001, he was transferred to Bern to the Political Division III (International Organizations) and in 2004, he held the post of First Secretary at the Swiss Mission to NATO in Brussels. Back in Bern in 2007, he has been appointed Deputy Head of the Human Rights Policy section. In 2010 he was transferred to Mexico as Deputy Head of Mission, and served subsequently as Deputy Head of Mission in Nairobi from 2014 to 2016, when he has been appointed by the Federal Council Ambassador to Costa Rica, El Salvador, Nicaragua and Panama (with residence in San José de Costa Rica). From August 2020 to July 2024, he has acted as Assistant Secretary of State for the Americas. Since August 2024 he is Ambassador to Kenya. Mirko Giulietti is married and has two sons and a daughter.
