P.242.45-0 – CITES 1/08

Notification to the Signatory and Acceding States to the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES), concluded in Washington on 3 March 1973

Accession to the CITES by the Sultanate of Oman

On 19 March 2008, the Sultanate of Oman deposited with the Swiss Government an instrument of accession to the CITES.

According to its article XXII, paragraph 2, the Convention, amended at Bonn on 22 June 1979, will enter into force for the Sultanate of Oman 90 days after the deposit of the instrument of accession, i.e. on 17 June 2008.

The present notification is addressed to the Governments of the Signatory and Acceding States in conformity with article XXV, paragraph 2, of the CITES.
